ROCKFORD PLANE OVERDUE; THOUGHT LOST

DARING ATTEMPT TO GAIN A NEW NORTHERN ROUTE

NO WORD FROM THEM ON COCHRANE TO MT. EVANS, GREENLAND FLIGHT

LAST HEARD FROM WAS RADIO 400 MILES INLAND FROM LABRADOR

Julianehaab, Greenland, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Lost in a daring attempt to establish a new northern route to Europe, Bert Hassell and Parker D. Cramer were 18 hours overdue this morning on their flight from Cochrane, Ont., to Mt. Evans, Greenland.

Not a word has been received from their airplane—the Greater Rockford—since early Sunday morning when he reported by wireless that his plane was over Davis Strait and had passed over the coast of Labrador about an hour earlier. Previously Hassell had reported he was over Apiskigamish lake in northern Quebec.

The two fliers had expected to reach Mt. Evans within 18 hours after they left Cochrane. They flew away from the Ontario City at a few minutes after noon Saturday and radio reports showed good progress was made as far as Apiskigamish lake, in Quebec.

From the lake there was a difficult flying course in front of these two Rockford, Ill., men. Their overland territory was barren and landing places were few. In addition there was the long overwater flight between the Labrador coastline and the Mt. Evans runway—about midland and just off the coast.

With dawn today and still no word of the men, it was almost certain the Greater Rockford had been forced to land—perhaps on sea or perhaps on the barren district between Lake Aspisigamish and the Labradorian coast.

A landing at sea probably would have been disastrous. Their plane was not equipped for a water landing.

There were no flying fields available to these men in northern Quebec, Labrador or Baffin Land—should they have been forced from their course sufficiently to pass over that island.

There, too, the men would have difficulty in advising the outside world, should they have been forced down or should they be in need of aid. There are a few radio stations along the Labrador coast, but most of them are well outside of the course Hassell had planned.

Should they successfully have reached Greenland and been forced down before making Mt. Evans, it may be days before their fate is known. There are only one or two communication stations available on the island. Much of the inland part of this island is uncultivated and uninhabited and the men would have a lonely trek, through waste territory, should this be their fate.

Everywhere along the Greenland coastline a watch was kept today for some tidings of the men. The Mt. Evans station kept the radio station here advised regularly, but there was no cheer from that point.

Rockford, Ill., Aug. 20.—As hours passed without word from the Greater Rockford, anxiety grew here today for the safety of Bert Hassell, pilot of the plane, and his navigator, Parker Cramer.

Worried groups of citizens, many of whom had little sleep during the hours of waiting, gathered and speculated on the possibility that the fliers had reached Greenland but landed where communication with the rest of the world was impossible.

A message from Madison, Wis., late yesterday reported that radio operators there, to whom Hassell had been reporting his progress, had virtually abandoned hope of hearing the Greater Rockford's wireless.

Mrs. Rosalie Hassell, wife of the Great Rockford's pilot, held bravely to a belief that the fliers were safe.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Aug. 20.—The American plane Greater Rockford has failed to reach Mt. Evans, Greenland, on its attempted flight from Cochrane, Ont.

At 3:10 A. M. today, Danish time (9:10 P. M. Sunday, eastern standard time), the University of Michigan scientific expedition at Mt. Evans had seen or heard nothing of the fliers. The discouraging word from Prof. W. H. Hobbs, leader of the expedition, was radioed to the Green-

TUNNEL ENTRANCE CAVES IN; 3 MEN KILLED, 2 HURT

Emporia, Kan., Aug. 20.—(UP)—Three men were killed and two others injured when the entrance to a tunnel caved in near here Sunday. The men were employees of the Oklahoma Construction company which is engaged in building a pipe line from Wichita to Kansas City. They were planking up the entrance to the tunnel where the pipe line is to pass under the Santa Fe tracks. The dead are E. C. Wilson, Burlington, Kan., Warren Austin, Emporia, and Andrew Kowski, address unknown.

ADD FINAL TOUCH TO WELCOME FOR HOOVER

WEST BRANCH, IOWA, PREPARES TO RECEIVE NATIVE SON

CANDIDATE TO VISIT SCENES OF HIS CHILDHOOD

West Branch, Ia., Aug. 20.—(UP)—The final touch was added today to arrangements for the reception tomorrow of Herbert Hoover, republican presidential nominee.

Hoover, with Mrs. Hoover, will return to the scenes of his childhood tomorrow morning and will spend twenty-four hours in this little village. Then they will motor to Cedar Rapids, where the nominee will confer with republican leaders of the middle west and with farm organization heads. Hoover will spend two days at Cedar Rapids.

Visitors from all parts of the state began arriving by motor, bus and train. Special trains are expected to bring many additional thousands tomorrow. It will be the town's greatest celebration.

The Hoover special will arrive at 7:30 A. M. tomorrow. Breakfast in the old home where he was born will be served Hoover and members of his immediate party. After that he will visit the Quaker cemetery, where his parents are buried.

Luncheon will be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Othel Yoder, Mrs. Yoder is a third cousin of the nominee. In the afternoon a reception is planned for those who went to school here with Hoover. A political conference also is on the schedule. The evening program, which will be broadcast, will start at 6:30 o'clock. Governor John Hammill will preside. Hoover will begin his address at 7 o'clock.

President of Cuban Senate Operated Upon

Rochester, Minn., Aug. 20.—(UP)—Dr. Clemente Vasquez Bello, president of the Cuban senate, was successfully operated upon here today by Dr. Charles Mayo for appendix and gall bladder trouble.

"Although the operation was very serious," hospital attendants said, "Dr. Bello withstood the ordeal very well and an hour after the operation was in good condition."

land station at Julianehaab and relayed by radio here.

At the hour of Prof. Hobbs' report, the plane had been gone from Cochrane more than 33 hours, several hours past the time the fliers had figured they could remain aloft with their supply of gasoline.

The message apparently made it certain that the fliers were down somewhere, but there still was hope that they were alive. If they crossed Davis Strait and reached the Greenland coast, they might have made a forced landing without injury.

In that sparsely settled country, with its scanty communications, it could be days or even weeks before word reached civilization.

The perils of such a landing, however, are great. They were emphasized by Bangsted, the Danish explorer, who returned from Greenland after helping Elmer Eetes, advance man for the fliers, arrange a landing field there.

He said they were unable to make a landing field sufficiently long to ensure a good landing for the Greater Rockford, and that therefore they could not accept responsibility if the Greater Rockford failed.

The first jump of 800 miles was made by the persistent fliers in seven hours and forty-nine minutes. Latest reports are that the plane is lost.

Goebel and Tucker Set New World Record for Nonstop Airplane Flight Across United States

RACE THROUGH THE SKY AT 140 MILES AN HOUR

FLY FROM LOS ANGELES TO CURTISS FIELD, L. I., IN 18 HOURS, 15 MINUTES

ARRIVED AT EASTERN TERMINUS TWO HOURS BEFORE EXPECTED

Curtiss Field, L. I., Aug. 20.—Racing through the sky at an average speed of approximately 140 miles an hour, Arthur Goebel and Harry Tucker today set a new world record for a non-stop airplane flight across the United States.

They left Los Angeles, Calif., Sunday, at 12:10 P. M. (4:10 P. M. eastern daylight time) and arrived at this flying field at 11:08 A. M. today, an elapsed time of 18 hours and 58 minutes.

Curtiss Field officials were dismayed when they saw the trim white monoplane, a Lockheed-Vega with a Wasp motor, come sailing out of the western sky, at least two hours before anyone thought she would arrive.

Only once before had a plane spanned the breadth of the United States in a single hop. That flight, made by Lieutenants James A. MacReady and Oakley Kelley, Dayton, Ohio, army fliers, on May 2 and 3 in 1924, required 26 hours and 50 minutes.

Curtiss Field, L. I., Aug. 20.—Art Goebel, winner of the Dole flight to Honolulu last year, arrived at Curtiss Field today, completing a non-stop flight across the country from Los Angeles.

Flying a Lockheed-Vega monoplane, the Yankee Doodle, Goebel and Harry Tucker, owner of the plane, completed the flight in record time. They were in the air only 18 hours and 58 minutes, breaking by several hours the transcontinental record of 26 hours and 50 minutes set in 1923 by MacReady and Kelley, the Dayton, O., army fliers.

Goebel and Tucker had left Los Angeles Sunday at 12:10 P. M. (4:10 P. M. EDT).

Their flying time was at least two hours better than they had anticipated when they started out. In Los Angeles Goebel said he hoped to complete the coast-to-coast flight in 21 hours.

The only previous non-stop flight between the two coasts was made on May 2 and 3 in 1924 when Lieutenants Oakley Kelly, and James A. MacReady flew from Roosevelt Field, Long Island, to San Diego, Calif., a distance of 2,516 miles.

To complete the flight in record time Goebel set his monoplane through the air at an average speed of approximately 142 miles an hour. He made a perfect landing.

Hollywood, Cal.—Thelma Todd and James Ford, both of the films, announced their engagement today.

6 KILLED, 50 HURT WHEN STREETCAR AND BUS COLLIDE

Cologne, Germany, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Six persons were killed today and 50 injured in a collision between a streetcar and a sight-seeing bus.

3 PERSONS ARE KILLED, 10 HURT IN WEEK-END MISHAPS

WENDELL CHAPMAN, FORMER HIGHWAY ENGINEER, KILLED

ST. PAUL GIRL INSTANTLY KILLED WHEN CAR PLUNGES OVER EMBANKMENT

St. Paul, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Three persons were killed and at least ten injured as a result of automobile accidents throughout Minnesota over the week-end.

Wendell P. Chapman, 36, assistant construction engineer of the Minnesota highway department, died in a hospital here late Sunday of injuries suffered when struck by a motor car near Anoka Saturday. Chapman was a former highway engineer of Rice county. He is survived by his widow and three children.

Thomas Diver, 5, Minneapolis, was killed when the motor car driven by his father struck a tree near Brookside, a Minneapolis suburb. Mrs. Diver and a daughter were slightly injured.

Miss Edith Lindgren, 17, St. Paul, was instantly killed when the automobile in which she was riding plunged over an embankment near the outskirts of St. Paul. Edward Bagge, also of St. Paul, was held today in an investigation of the accident.

OPTIMISTIC CROP REPORTS SEND WHEAT LOWER

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Lower quotations at foreign markets and optimistic crop reports sent wheat sharply lower today on the board of trade. September corn was tight and advanced sharply but the deferred deliveries weakened. Oats lost a fraction.

Wheat closed 1½ to 2 1-8 cents lower, corn ranged from 1 5-8 cents up to 3-8 cent off and oats was unchanged to 1-8 cent down. Provisions were slightly higher.

FIVE LIVES LOST WHEN SHIP GROUNDS

Santiago, Chile, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Five lives were lost when the small steamer Miraflores went aground at the mouth of the Maullin river on Friday, it was announced officially today. The dead included an infant. The remainder of the 20 aboard escaped.

The vessel was reported to be a total loss.

BIG "3RD ACT" OF CAMPAIGN DRAMA OF 1928

WILL PLAY TO MILLIONS OF AUDITORS DURING THIS WEEK

ACT I HOOVER SPEECH, ACT II CURTIS, ACT III SMITH'S SPEECH

Washington, Aug. 20.—(UP)—The big "third act" of the 1928 campaign drama will play to millions this week.

Act one was Hoover's acceptance speech, formally introduced the republican presidential candidate nine days ago.

Act two, Senator Charles Curtis' acceptance of the republican vice presidential nomination, held the boards last Saturday.

Act three will find Governor Alfred E. Smith in the spotlight, delivering at Albany Wednesday evening the oration which he hopes will help him win the national leadership.

Because the democratic candidate's words will be weighed carefully against Hoover's, Smith's acceptance address may be regarded as a climax of the early campaign. It will be heard by thousands at Albany and by millions over a vast radio hookup; and the nominee will be both seen and heard in "talking movies" in many cities simultaneously.

On Tuesday Hoover will give farmers at West Branch, Iowa, additional information on how he plans to solve their problems if elected. It will be a great "homecoming" scene where Hoover spent his boyhood days, and the talk will be broadcast over 46-odd radio stations.

The day following Smith's address, Curtis will deliver a republican campaign speech at Rocky Point, R. I., in hotly-contested New England.

Besides those activities, this week holds other important developments. Hoover will return to Washington to take personal charge of his national drive for votes. Smith will hold informal conferences with democratic national committeemen. Observers expect him to lay plans for provoking Hoover into expanded previous utterances on prohibition and power development.

WARNS AGAINST PROTESTANT VIOLENCE, HATRED AND PREJUDICE

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 20.—(UP)—A warning against Protestant violence, hatred and prejudice and an admonition to dry clergymen to refrain from political sermons came Sunday from Dr. C. B. Wilmer, professor of theology at Sewanee University, in a sermon here.

"Preaching obedience to law is within the prerogative of the pulpit but denunciation by prohibitionists of those who think some other method of control would be wiser is an intolerable piece of arrogance and tyranny," Dr. Wilmer said.

1,800 NATIVES DROWN IN THE YELLOW RIVER

Peking, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Eighteen hundred natives were drowned when flooded tributaries of the Yellow river swept over 200 villages in central Shantung. It was reported here today.

The report was made by American investigators in the flooded region. Forty thousand were made homeless, the estimate said.

ALBANY FLUTTERS WITH FLAGS TO GREET GOV. SMITH

FORMAL NOTIFICATION CEREMONIES TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

ANTICIPATED 100,000 PERSONS WILL GATHER TO HEAR AND SEE SMITH

By PERCY B. SCOTT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Bedecked with flags and bunting Albany today awaited one of the biggest events in its more than 300 years of history—the formal notification of Wednesday evening of Gov. Alfred E. Smith that he has been selected as the democratic candidate for president.

There it is anticipated that 100,000 or more persons will gather in the open spaces surrounding the capitol to hear and see the governor.

Final plans for the ceremony were completed today. Two bands, one on each side of the eastern stairway of the capitol, where the exercises will be held, will give a concert beginning at 6 P. M.

An hour later the governor, accompanied by John J. Raskob, chairman of the national democratic committee, Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, chairman of the notification committee, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, the vice-presidential nominee, and Mayor John B. Thacher, will walk down the stairs to the platform.

The mayor will extend the city's welcome to the visitors and introduce Pittman, who is scheduled to make his notification address at 7:15 the governor will make his reply beginning at 7:30.

Thirty-six special trains will be operated into the city for the ceremony. Boat lines will add extra facilities also.

LIEUT. C. F. SCHILT TAKES OFF FOR NICARAGUA

Washington, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Lieut. C. F. Schilt, marine aviation hero, took off in a tri-motored Fokker plane early today for Nicaragua. The object of the flight is to deliver the plane at Managua for use in marine operations against General Sandino.

Schilt's original plan was to make only one stop at Miami, Fla., but he announced before leaving the naval air station that he would land the plane at Pope Field, N. C., also.

SURRENDERS TO POLICE AFTER WIFE'S DEATH

Elizabeth, Tenn., Aug. 20.—(UP)—M. McNaron, said to be a salesman from Cleveland, O., surrendered to police at noon today, a few minutes after his wife was shot dead.

McNaron said her death followed a quarrel in which she stabbed at him with a letter opener. He was slightly wounded in the chest.

Police removed McNaron to Greenville, where a crowd gathered in front of the Carter county jail.

AUTOMOBILE PLUNGES THROUGH CROWD OF PEOPLE

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 20.—(UP)—An automobile driven by Mrs. R. J. Cruise, plunged through a crowd of 150 persons, who were waiting to board a train here today. At least ten persons were injured.

Mrs. Cruise said she momentarily lost control of her car.

5 OTHERS HURT IN ACCIDENT AT RED WING

HAPPENED NEAR CITY WHEN BUS STRUCK STATE FISH HATCHERIES TRUCK

BUS OVERTURNS IN DITCH AND IMMEDIATELY BURSTS INTO FLAMES

Red Wing, Minn., Aug. 20.—(UP)—Five unidentified persons were killed and five others were injured near here today when a Lake State Motor Coach Company passenger bus struck a truck, overturned in the ditch and immediately burst into flames.

W. R. Pichard, 20, 212 East Acker Street, St. Paul, rescued four seriously injured persons from the burning wreckage despite the fact that his right wrist was fractured in the crash.

Pichard was burned about the hands and face during his heroic efforts.

The seriously injured were: W. J. Gardner, Minneapolis, perhaps critically cut and burned. Mrs. C. F. Edwards, Chicago, burned about the face and hands. Walker Meyer, Wayzata, driver, burned and injured by glass.

Mrs. A. W. Morris, negro, Millford, Mich., burned.

The crash occurred three miles from Red Wing when the northbound bus rounded a curve and struck a state fish hatcheries truck.

Almost immediately, the injured persons said, the huge bus burst into flames.

So fierce was the fire that the injured persons were barely pulled from the wreckage by Pichard before the bus and the truck were a mass of flames.

The five who perished were trapped in the forward part of the passenger car. Their charred bodies were not found until an hour and a half after the accident occurred.

All the injured were taken to a hospital here.

Pichard was released from the hospital after his wrist had been placed in splints and his wounds had been dressed.

The driver of the fish hatchery truck, whose name was not learned, was not injured. The truck was bound for Red Wing with fish to be stocked in nearby lakes.

YEGGS BLOWING SAFE ARE TRAPPED

Columbus, O., Aug. 20.—(UP)—Yeggs who blew the safe of the Union Clothing Company here today were believed trapped in the building when a fireman, passing the building as the blast was set off, gave an alarm that brought all available police to the scene. A cordon was immediately formed.

Police and firemen were augmented by members of the American Legion, who are holding their state convention here.

A sack of money was found on the first floor of the building. Police said they believed the burglars dropped the sack as they attempted to make their escape.

The night watchman was found unconscious, chained to a post on the sixth floor.

SINCLAIR LEWIS AND HIS BRIDE RETURN HOME

Paris, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Sinclair Lewis, the American novelist, sailed for the United States yesterday on the liner Hamburg, with Mrs. Lewis.

They have just completed a long European honeymoon, which they made by motor caravan, and during that time Lewis said he completed the draft of a novel.

TOOMS NOT TO BE RETURNED TO ST. LOUIS

Chicago, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Roy C. Tooms, wanted in St. Louis in connection with missing assets of the International Life Insurance Co., will not be returned to St. Louis for several days and possibly not at all, it was said today by Garfield Charles, referee in bankruptcy, before whom Tooms' bankruptcy hearing is being held.

BIG "3RD ACT" OF CAMPAIGN DRAMA OF 1928

WILL PLAY TO MILLIONS OF AUDITORS DURING THIS WEEK

ACT I HOOVER SPEECH, ACT II
CURTIS, ACT III SMITH'S SPEECH

Washington, Aug. 20.—(UP)—The big "third act" of the 1928 campaign drama will play to millions this week.

Act one was Hoover's acceptance speech, formally introduced the republican presidential candidate nine days ago.

Act two, Senator Charles Curtis' acceptance of the republican vice presidential nomination, held the boards last Saturday.

Act three will find Governor Alfred E. Smith in the spotlight, delivering at Albany Wednesday evening the oration which he hopes will help him win the national leadership.

Because the democratic candidate's words will be weighed carefully against Hoover's, Smith's acceptance address may be regarded as a climax of the early campaign. It will be heard by thousands at Albany and by millions over a vast radio hookup; and the nominee will be both seen and heard in "talking movies" in many cities simultaneously.

On Tuesday Hoover will give farmers at West Branch, Iowa, additional information on how he plans to solve their problems if elected. It will be a great "homecoming" scene where Hoover spent his boyhood days, and the talk will be broadcast over 40-odd radio stations.

The day following Smith's address, Curtis will deliver a republican campaign speech at Rocky Point, R. I., in hotly-contested New England.

Besides those activities, this week holds other important developments. Hoover will return to Washington to take personal charge of his national drive for votes. Smith will hold informal conferences with democratic national committeemen. Observers expect him to lay plans for provoking Hoover into expanding his previous utterances on prohibition and power development.

WARNS AGAINST PROTESTANT VIOLENCE, HATRED AND PREJUDICE

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 20.—(UP)—A warning against Protestant violence, hatred and prejudice and an admonition to dry clergymen to refrain from political sermons came Sunday from Dr. C. B. Wilmer, professor of theology at Sewanee University, in a sermon here.

"Preaching obedience to law is within the prerogative of the pulpit but denunciation by prohibitionists of those who think some other method of control would be wiser is an intolerable piece of arrogance and tyranny," Dr. Wilmer said.

1,800 NATIVES DROWN IN THE YELLOW RIVER

Peking, Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—Eighteen hundred natives were drowned when flooded tributaries of the Yellow river swept over 200 villages in central Shantung, it was reported here today.

The report was made by American investigators in the flooded region. Forty thousand were made homeless, the estimate said.

ALBANY FLUTTERS WITH FLAGS TO GREET GOV. SMITH

FORMAL NOTIFICATION CEREMONIES TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

ANTICIPATED 100,000 PERSONS
WILL GATHER TO HEAR AND SEE SMITH

By PERCY B. SCOTT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Bedecked with flags and bunting Albany today awaited one of the biggest events in its more than 300 years of history—the formal notification of Wednesday evening of Gov. Alfred E. Smith that he has been selected as the democratic candidate for president.

There it is anticipated that 100,000 or more persons will gather in the open spaces surrounding the capitol to hear and see the governor.

Final plans for the ceremony were completed today. Two bands, one on each side of the eastern stairway of the capitol, where the exercises will be held, will give a concert beginning at 6 P. M.

An hour later the governor, accompanied by John J. Raskob, chairman of the national democratic committee, Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, chairman of the notification committee, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, the vice-presidential nominee, and Mayor John B. Thacher, will walk down the stairs to the platform.

The mayor will extend the city's welcome to the visitors and introduce Pittman, who is scheduled to make his notification address at 7:15 the governor will make his reply beginning at 7:30.

Thirty-six special trains will be operated into the city for the ceremony. Boat lines will add extra facilities also.

LIEUT. C. F. SCHILT TAKES OFF FOR NICARAGUA

Washington, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Lieut. C. F. Schilt, marine aviation hero, took off in a tri-motored Fokker plane early today for Nicaragua. The object of the flight is to deliver the plane at Managua for use in marine operations against General Sandino.

Schilt's original plan was to make only one stop at Miami, Fla., but he announced before leaving the naval air station that he would land the plane at Pope Field, N. C., also.

SURRENDERS TO POLICE AFTER WIFE'S DEATH

Elizabeth, Tenn., Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—M. M. McNaron, said to be a salesman from Cleveland, O., surrendered to police at noon today, a few minutes after his wife was shot dead.

McNaron said her death followed a quarrel in which she stabbed at him with a letter opener. He was slightly wounded in the chest.

Police removed McNaron to Greenville, where a crowd gathered in front of the Carter county jail.

AUTOMOBILE PLUNGES THROUGH CROWD OF PEOPLE

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—An automobile driven by Mrs. R. J. Cruise, plunged through a crowd of 150 persons, who were waiting to board a train here today. At least ten persons were injured.

Mrs. Cruise said she momentarily lost control of her car.

5 OTHERS HURT IN ACCIDENT AT RED WING

HAPPENED NEAR CITY WHEN BUS STRUCK STATE FISH
HATCHERIES TRUCK

BUS OVERTURNS IN DITCH AND IMMEDIATELY BURSTS INTO FLAMES

Red Wing, Minn., Aug. 20.—(UP)—Five unidentified persons were killed and five others were injured near here today when a Lake State Motor Coach Company passenger bus struck a truck, overturned in the ditch and immediately burst into flames.

W. R. Pichard, 20, 212 East Acker Street, St. Paul, rescued four seriously injured persons from the burning wreckage despite the fact that his right wrist was fractured in the crash.

Pichard was burned about the hands and face during his heroic efforts.

The seriously injured were: W. J. Gardner, Minneapolis, perhaps critically cut and burned. Mrs. C. F. Edwards, Chicago, burned about the face and hands. Walker Meyer, Wayzata, driver, burned and injured by glass.

Mrs. A. W. Morris, negro, Millford, Mich., burned.

The crash occurred three miles from Red Wing when the northbound bus rounded a curve and struck a state fish hatcheries truck.

Almost immediately, the injured persons said, the huge bus burst into flames.

So fierce was the fire that the injured persons were barely pulled from the wreckage by Pichard before the bus and the truck were a mass of flames.

The five who perished were trapped in the forward part of the passenger car. Their charred bodies were not found until an hour and a half after the accident occurred.

All the injured were taken to a hospital here.

Pichard was released from the hospital after his wrist had been placed in splints and his wounds had been dressed.

The driver of the fish hatchery truck, whose name was not learned, was not injured. The truck was bound for Red Wing with fish to be stocked in nearby lakes.

YEGGS BLOWING SAFE ARE TRAPPED

Columbus, O., Aug. 20.—(UP)—Yeggs who blew the safe of the Union Clothing Company here today were believed trapped in the building when a fireman, passing the building as the blast was set off, gave an alarm that brought all available police to the scene. A cordon was immediately formed.

Police and firemen were augmented by members of the American Legion, who are holding their state convention here.

A sack of money was found on the first floor of the building. Police said they believed the burglars dropped the sack as they attempted to make their escape.

The night watchman was found unconscious, chained to a post on the sixth floor.

SINCLAIR LEWIS AND HIS BRIDE RETURN HOME

Paris, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Sinclair Lewis, the American novelist, sailed for the United States yesterday on the liner Hamburg, with Mrs. Lewis.

They have just completed a long European honeymoon, which they made by motor caravan, and during that time Lewis said he completed the draft of a novel.

TOOMS NOT TO BE RETURNED TO ST. LOUIS

Chicago, Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—Roy C. Tooms, wanted in St. Louis in connection with missing assets of the International Life Insurance Co., will not be returned to St. Louis for several days and possibly not at all, it was said today by Garfield Charles, referee in bankruptcy, before whom Tooms' bankruptcy hearing is being held.

PLEASANT LUNCHEON

Served by Ladies of St. Francis Guild During Moose Convention

One of the pleasing events of the Moose convention was the luncheon served by the St. Francis Guild at Lum Park. The pavilion was a bower of beauty with its decorations, artistically arranged tables, and dozens of prize gladioli, the gift of A. P. Cardle.

The Ladies band and the Junior Moose orchestra played and the vocal solo by Miss Homan, the sweet child singer of Northeast, was highly applauded.

The Guild ladies received many compliments from their out-of-town guests and were very much pleased when the quartet of the Moose sang them their charming toast. Those who missed the banquet missed a real treat.

Swanson-Nelson

Miss Esther Nelson of Duluth and Oscar W. Swanson of Brainerd were quietly married at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. E. Ohman, of Park Point Duluth, Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The bride was attended by Miss Gladys Klefsad of Duluth and the groom was attended by Ernest Nelson, brother of the bride. Lohengren's wedding march was played by Miss Myrlin Johnson of Duluth as the bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of shell pink georgette and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Rev. Beckman of Poplar, Wis., officiated.

Miss Nelson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swan Nelson of Poplar, Wis., and sister of Harold Nelson, 921 South Sixth street of Brainerd. Mr. Swanson is the son of Mr. Gust Swanson, 901 South Sixth street of Brainerd. He is well known in the city.

Brainerd guests were Gust Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Swanson and family, Mrs. John Stenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fredstrom, O. F. Erickson and Mrs. Hilma Peterson of Los Angeles.

PEACH SHIPMENT

Yakima Elberta Peaches Start From Washington Today for Brainerd

Word has just been received locally that the first large shipment of the famous Yakima Elberta peaches for home canning has left the Yakima valley in eastern Washington en route for Brainerd.

Women of this region who always look forward to peach canning time as an opportunity to stock their fruit shelves with a bountiful supply for the next year or two, will welcome the news that these celebrated peaches are plentiful this year.

Modern methods of transportation in refrigerator cars makes it possible for this fruit to reach this market in as perfect condition as when picked from the trees in the orchards where they grow.

The Yakima Valley has attained a world-wide fame for the perfection of its fruit, due to a combination of rich volcanic ash soil, a bright sunny climate tempered with cool breezes from the snowcapped mountains, and abundant water for irrigation.

Dealers are urging their customers to be ready to take care of their requirements in the way of canning supplies and fruit as quickly as possible as the season is short.

SAY PROHIBITION

HAS BEEN FAILURE

New York, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Prohibition has been a failure and the Volstead law should be modified, in the opinion of a majority of Episcopalian ministers who answered a poll taken by a church temperance society.

The church temperance society does not represent itself as speaking for the Episcopal church, but its constitution provides the presiding bishop of the church shall be its president and all bishops vice-presidents.

From two-thirds to three-fourths of those replying believe the present law is a failure and are in favor of some form of "modification," the report states. On the other hand, a bare majority, 50.8 per cent, did not wish the eighteenth amendment repealed.

Trying to "Scare"

Protestant Preachers

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—(UP)—A charge that John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee, is trying to "scare" the Protestant ministers of the country into silence against Alfred Smith was made by Dr. W. S. Tetley of the Westport Methodist church in a statement which preceded his Sunday sermon.

He said Raskob hoped to silence Protestant ministers by circulating a story that laymen were going to withdraw their financial support from the church if they did not stop slighting Smith.

Dr. W. E. Sickner of Duluth who flew from Duluth to Brainerd Saturday for the state convention of the Loyal Order of Moose was forced down at Aitkin when his supply of gasoline ran out. Dr. Sickner did not reach Rosko field until 7 p. m. Saturday and found no one there to welcome him when he made his landing. Dr. Sickner was an aviator in France during the world war and at that time he had part of one of his legs shot away. Despite the fact that it left him a cripple he has devised a brace whereby it is possible for him to operate his plane.

Dr. Sickner also entered a boat in the water carnival at Lum Park yesterday and in spite of the fact that he is crippled he was able to take first place in the tree for all event and second in the event for class D boats.

VOLUNTEERS SEEK TO RESCUE 'CHINKO'

Boston, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Volunteers worked for more than three hours here to rescue "Chinko," a small chow dog, from the waters of Boston harbor.

The dog tumbled overboard while trying to follow its mistress onto the Nantasket steamer Mayflower. That vessel's schedule was delayed 20 minutes while a lifeboat was lowered in a futile attempt to rescue the dog. Later the East Boston ferryboat Ashburnham was held up for five minutes when "Chinko" swam in front of its slip.

The dog finally was rescued when it swam close to a wharf.

VENIZELLOS AGAIN

IN CHARGE OF THE

PLEASANT LUNCHEON

Served by Ladies of St. Francis Guild During Moose Convention

One of the pleasing events of the Moose convention was the luncheon served by the St. Francis Guild at Lum Park. The pavilion was a bower of beauty with its decorations, artistically arranged tables, and dozens of prize gladioli, the gift of A. P. Cardle.

The Ladies band and the Junior Moose orchestra played and the vocal solo by Miss Homan, the sweet child singer of Northeast, was highly applauded.

The Guild ladies received many compliments from their out-of-town guests and were very much pleased when the quartet of the Moose sang them their charming toast. Those who missed the banquet missed a real treat.

Swanson-Nelson

Miss Esther Nelson of Duluth and Oscar W. Swanson of Brainerd were quietly married at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. E. Ohman, of Park Point Duluth, Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The bride was attended by Miss Gladys Klefsd of Duluth and the groom was attended by Ernest Nelson, brother of the bride. Lohengren's wedding march was played by Miss Myrlin Johnson of Duluth as the bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of shell pink georgette and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Rev. Beckman of Poplar, Wis., officiated.

Miss Nelson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swan Nelson of Poplar, Wis., and sister of Harold Nelson, 921 South Sixth street of Brainerd. Mr. Swanson is the son of Mr. Gust Swanson, 901 South Sixth street of Brainerd. He is well known in the city.

Brainerd guests were Gust Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Swanson and family, Mrs. John Stenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fredstrom, O. F. Erickson and Mrs. Hilma Peterson of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson left immediately after the reception on an extended trip to Buffalo, N. Y., on the S. S. Octorara. They will be at home to their friends in Brainerd after September 15.

George Sinclair, of Long Lake, was in the city today and he brought with him from his farm several samples of apples grown on trees planted by himself. There is a good variety and the showing is a splendid one for Crow Wing county.

The Misses Marjorie and Winnifred Cole who have been guests of Miss Eloise Smith, returned to their home in Minneapolis this afternoon.

PEACH SHIPMENT

Yakima Elberta Peaches Start From Washington Today for Brainerd

Word has just been received locally that the first large shipment of the famous Yakima Elberta peaches for home canning has left the Yakima valley in eastern Washington en route for Brainerd.

Women of this region who always look forward to peach canning time as an opportunity to stock their fruit shelves with a bountiful supply for the next year or two, will welcome the news that these celebrated peaches are plentiful this year.

Modern methods of transportation in refrigerator cars makes it possible for this fruit to reach this market in as perfect condition as when picked from the trees in the orchards where they grow.

The Yakima Valley has attained a world-wide fame for the perfection of its fruit, due to a combination of rich volcanic ash soil, a bright sunny climate tempered with cool breezes from the snowcapped mountains, and abundant water for irrigation.

Dealers are urging their customers to be ready to take care of their requirements in the way of canning supplies and fruit as quickly as possible as the season is short.

SAY PROHIBITION

HAS BEEN FAILURE

New York, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Prohibition has been a failure and the Volstead law should be modified, in the opinion of a majority of Episcopal ministers who answered a poll taken by a church temperance society.

The church temperance society does not represent itself as speaking for the Episcopal church, but its constitution provides the presiding bishop of the church shall be its president and all bishops vice-presidents.

From two-thirds to three-fourths of those replying believe the present law is a failure and are in favor of some form of "modification," the report states. On the other hand, a bare majority, 50.8 per cent, did not wish the eighteenth amendment repealed.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—(UP)—A charge that John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee, is trying to "scare" the Protestant ministers of the country into silence against Alfred Smith was made by Dr. W. S. Tetley of the Westport Methodist church in a statement which preceded his Sunday sermon.

He said Raskob hoped to silence Protestant ministers by circulating a story that laymen were going to withdraw their financial support from the church if they did not stop fighting Smith.

WINS IN SPITE OF HANDICAPS

Dr. W. E. Sickner of Duluth who flew from Duluth to Brainerd Saturday for the state convention of the Loyal Order of Moose was forced down at Aitkin when his supply of gasoline ran out. Dr. Sickner did not reach Rosko field until 7 p. m. Saturday and found no one there to welcome him when he made his landing. Dr. Sickner was an aviator in France during the world war and at that time he had part of one of his legs shot away. Despite the fact that it left him a cripple he has devised a brace whereby it is possible for him to operate his plane.

Dr. Sickner also entered a boat in the water carnival at Lum Park yesterday and in spite of the fact that he is crippled he was able to take first place in the free for all event and second in the event for class D boats.

VOLUNTEERS SEEK TO RESCUE 'CHINKO'

Boston, Aug. 20.—(UP)—Volunteers worked for more than three hours here to rescue "Chinko," a small chow dog, from the waters of Boston harbor.

The dog tumbled overboard while trying to follow its mistress onto the Nantasket steamer Mayflower. That vessel's schedule was delayed 20 minutes while a lifeboat was lowered in a futile attempt to rescue the dog. Later the East Boston ferryboat Ashburnham was held up for five minutes when "Chinko" swam in front of its slip.

The dog finally was rescued when it swam close to a wharf.

VENIZELLOS AGAIN

FLYING WEATHER IDEAL ON SUNDAY

Close to 100 People Enjoying Flying in Waco Plane of Hennick and Carpenter

AT ROSKO FIELD

Aviators Say Field at Present is Better Than Anything Duluth Has to Offer

Between eighty and a hundred people enjoyed sight seeing flights over Brainerd with Paul Hennick and Paul L. Carpenter, Crosby fliers, yesterday in their new Waco 10 plane. Flying conditions were almost ideal.

The two airmen commented on Rosko field, saying that when the present work is completed, it will undoubtedly be one of the nicest landing fields in the northwest. They seemed to be of the opinion that the field at the present time was better than anything that Duluth had to offer visiting airmen.

The work on the improving of Rosko Field has been slowed up considerably the last few days on account of the heavy rains of the past week. However, the plowing, rolling, discing and dragging are being continued and about 50 acres have been put in pretty good condition. They expect to have about 50 acres in condition within the next two or three weeks. The field is 160 acres in all.

They have also been cutting the brush around the edges of the field and the construction of a double roadway leading to and from the field is almost complete.

Beautiful Grasse Region

The Grasse region, in the south of France, is the real land of flowers. There is practically no agriculture in the region save floriculture. MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1928

POVERTY

POVERTY is a terrible thing, says the Baltimore Sun. It forces the day laborer to ride to work on a street car. It makes the rest of us come to the office when we had rather put in a glorious day at golf. It prevents us from buying more than two editions of the evening paper. It makes us shine our own shoes and take last year's straw hat to be cleaned. It calls for sacrifices such as eating oranges instead of grapefruit for breakfast and having warmed-over Sunday roasts for Monday's dinner.

Poverty stricken people must make up their minds to be content without hardwood floors and to live on a single bathroom. They cannot buy an electric washing machine and a radio in the same year. They must bear the social stigma of giving their guests domestic ginger ale and salted peanuts instead of salted almonds. They cannot go to the movies more than twice a week and must get their books from the public library.

If men smoke domestic tobacco instead of imported, if women use a less well-known brand of perfume, if a man has to cut his own grass and a woman simply hasn't a decent thing to wear and the children can't go sent off to camp, the trouble is poverty.

Poverty makes it so hard to keep in silk stockings and up to the latest style in shoes. It condemns one for life to a party line and prevents your putting more than a dollar a week in a savings bank. It makes you shiver every time you open the bill from the country club and groan when you lose a golf ball or tip a caddy. Poverty-stricken people cannot trade in their old car each year for a new one. If they go to Europe they must take tourist passage, which is so annoying. Poverty drives a man to cudgel his brains as to where the next installment is coming from that he owes on the mortgage, the motor car, the radio, the vacuum cleaner, the range, the furniture, the electric refrigerator, the thermostat, the fire-prevention system and the other necessities of middle-class life.

Yes, poverty is a terrible thing.

THEY HAD TO KILL HIM

UNDER the caption, "They Had to Kill Him," the Greensboro, N. C., Daily News gives the following lame defense of dad:

Reports of dad being bumped off by some member of the family are becoming alarmingly frequent here of late. In most of the cases the story runs about the same. The old man was cruel and abusive, mistreated the family, especially mother. He was in temper, excited by drink; was making threats and gestures of violence; and to save the members of the family, especially mother, from his wrath it was necessary to use drastic means.

There are plenty of worthless dads. Some of them deserve to be killed on general principles. They do little or nothing for the children they have brought into the world, nor for the aid and comfort of the mother who bore those children. And worse than that, often while contributing nothing of consequence to the comfort and happiness of the family, they contribute liberally to its discomfort and unhappiness. Geniality, good nature, cover a multitude of sins, and one's worthlessness may be overlooked if he has a way of making people like him. But more than often meanness, the disposition to be disagreeable and to hurt somebody, especially the members of the family, are adjuncts of general triflingness.

Dad is not, as a general proposition, the most popular member of the family. Circumstances sometimes make him the most unpopular, even when he is doing his best. If then he is disagreeable, mean and gives trouble the forming of a combination that may find drastic measures necessary for domestic comfort may not be so difficult. If the old man's side could be heard by the unbiased the situation might sometimes take on a different color. Occasionally the neighbors will say he wasn't the worst of the lot. But generally the circumstances are against him, and if the worst comes to the worst dad gets the worst.

CUTTING WEEDS

WE hear and read a lot about weed extermination and so we can appreciate the work of the State Highway Department which has men, for instance, on Trunk Highway No. 19, cutting weeds and brush from the right of way.

The two men, one on each side of the roadway, are cutting a swath and piling it in neat hummocks. They are doing a good job and leave the surface as "slick" and clean as any lawn in town. No boss stands over them, but 12,521 motorists have observed them and commented on the neat, workmanlike way in which they perform their weed cutting and clearing job.

A NICE FIELD OF ALFALFA

A FIELD of alfalfa attracting universal attention is that of Mike Marea on Trunk Highway No. 19 about ten miles from Brainerd. He has cut one crop and another is looming in the offing.

Mr. Marea's whole farm bespeaks that same degree of careful attention accorded every phase, of which the alfalfa is an outstanding example. Mike is making farming pay and is not afraid to experiment in new lines.

OUR WATER SPORTS

IT is only this year that the Brainerd Lake Region realized what its lakes and rivers beckoned in the way of water sports and we refer especially to the development of speed boat racing.

Gull lake, Whitefish lake, Rice lake and other lakes have had their regattas and furnished entertainment for thousands of people. It all helps to bring more visitors into the lake country.

GLARING headlights are driving motorists off the crowded highways. The Brainerd Dispatch says that many motorists have discontinued night driving because it is too much a strain on the eyes. In spite of the fact that headlight testing stations have been installed in many towns the glaring headlight still makes night driving a severe test on one's nerves.—Saint Cloud Times.

THE Duluth Herald is of the opinion that the "Greater Rockford" flight is a sensible one. And in spite of that the aviators appear to have lost themselves.

TWELVE Twin City business men recently got up early, flew to Omaha, Neb., had breakfast there, and spent the day at a business conference.

IT seems to be the general run of human nature that no convention has exceeded attendance forecasts.

THEM'S TRUE WORDS

"I tell you, you can see through the men by the clothes they wear."
"Well, it's the same way with us girls."

MISSING IT

"What do you think of the hosiery display, Bob?"
"In what store, Dick?"
"Store my eye! Right here on this windy corner."

LIKE ALARM CLOCK

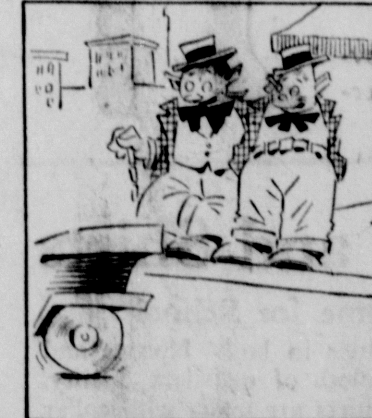

He—How about wedding bells for you and me?
She—Nothing doing. Too much like an alarm clock.

SELF-POSSESSED

He—Grace is so self-possessed.
She—Yes—no one else seems to want her.

MAGICIAN-AUTOIST

"Why do you call him the magician-autoist?"
"Because he's always turning his car into a telegraph-pole or a fire plug or something of that kind."

WANTED THEM OUTSIDE

Goof (seeing lady of house angry)—I guess you want me to take my gum shoes outside?
L. O. B.—Yes—and without removing them, please.

SANG AT HER WORK

"She's so cheerful—always sings at her work."
"That's fine—what's she doing?"
"Studying for grand opera."

BLIND

"Did you hear that blind man? He said 'Thank you, pretty lady.'"
"I tell you blindness is a terrible thing."

ENGAGED TOO LONG

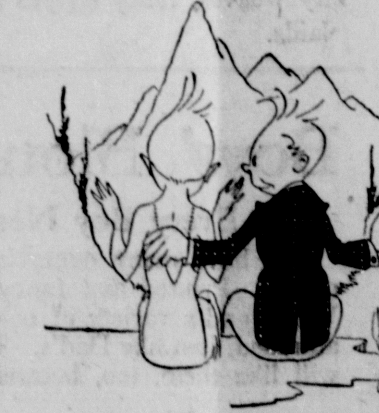

He—Seems to me we've been engaged long enough to get married.
She—Too long.

SUCCEEDED

"Is that dumb son of Jake's still in college tryin' to get somethin' into his head?"
"Now, not any more, he committed suicide last week."

GORGEOUS GORGE

She—Isn't the view gorgeous?
He—Naturally. A gorge is bound to be gorgeous.

NO FRIENDS

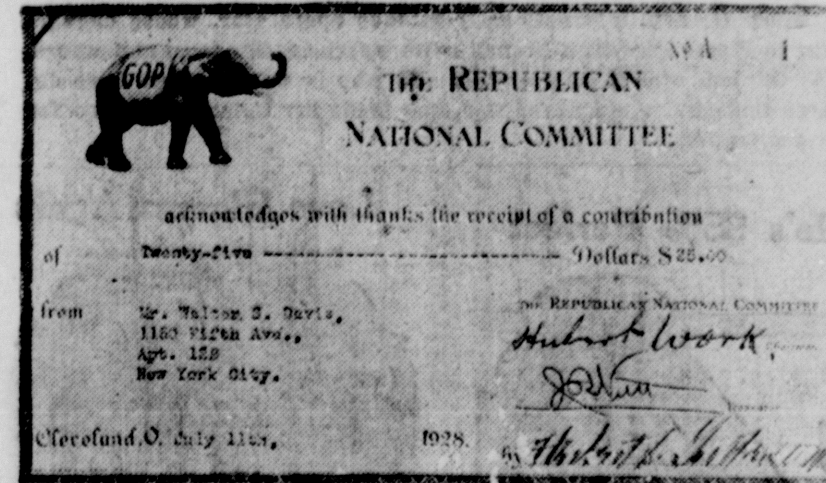

"You say he has no friends among the girls now?"
"No, he couldn't keep up the payments on his car."

Do You Buy Advertised Goods?

Of course you do; everybody does. Just run over in your mind the various articles that you have purchased in the last week or the last month. How about foods? Your breakfast fruits, cereals and bacon are all advertised. Probably that is how you first came to know of them—through advertising. Probably the shoes you are wearing, or the dress or suit you have on are equally well-known advertised makes, and you are proud of them.

In the home. On the floor are rugs and linoleum—the better wearing kinds are extensively advertised. What about the kitchen? Aluminum ware, gas ranges, hot water heaters, dish and clothes washers, cooking utensils of all kinds—practically everything you use is advertised. You buy advertised products because you have confidence in them. You know that a manufacturer cannot afford to advertise shoddy or unworthy merchandise.

The more you read advertising the more you will know about human progress. You will become well posted in almost every line of human endeavor and a canny judge of values. Reading advertisements is a fine habit. Cultivate it.

POVERTY

POVERTY is a terrible thing, says the Baltimore Sun. It forces the day laborer to ride to work on a street car. It makes the rest of us come to the office when we had rather put in a glorious day at golf. It prevents us from buying more than two editions of the evening paper. It makes us shine our own shoes and take last year's straw hat to be cleaned. It calls for sacrifices such as eating oranges instead of grapefruit for breakfast and having warmed-over Sunday roasts for Monday's dinner.

Poverty stricken people must make up their minds to be content without hardwood floors and to live on a single bathroom. They cannot buy an electric washing machine and a radio in the same year. They must bear the social stigma of giving their guests domestic ginger ale and salted peanuts instead of salted almonds. They cannot go to the movies more than twice a week and must get their books from the public library.

If men smoke domestic tobacco instead of imported, if women use a less well-known brand of perfume, if a man has to cut his own grass and a woman simply hasn't a decent thing to wear and the children can't go sent off to camp, the trouble is poverty.

Poverty makes it so hard to keep in silk stockings and up to the latest style in shoes. It condemns one for life to a party line and prevents your putting more than a dollar a week in a savings bank. It makes you shiver every time you open the bill from the country club and groan when you lose a golf ball or tip a caddy. Poverty-stricken people cannot trade in their old car each year for a new one. If they go to Europe they must take tourist passage, which is so annoying. Poverty drives a man to cudgel his brains as to where the next installment is coming from that he owes on the mortgage, the motor car, the radio, the vacuum cleaner, the range, the furniture, the electric refrigerator, the thermostat, the fire-prevention system and the other necessities of middle-class life.

BRAINERD DEFEATS CROSBY ORE DIGGERS, SCORE 6 TO 3

LOCALS POUND OUT ELEVEN SAFE HITS IN GAME

REAP SWEET REVENGE FOR
THEIR 4TH OF JULY LOSS AT
HANDS OF RANGE

OLSON, IN GREAT FORM, STRIKES
OUT 10, ALLOWS ONLY
SIX HITS

The Brainerd baseball team dropped the Crosby Ore Diggers by a score of 6 to 3 in a free hitting contest yesterday when the locals pounded out a total of eleven safe hits, among them two doubles and two triples. The locals seem to have found their batting eye again and they reaped sweet revenge for their Fourth of July defeat at the hands of Crosby.

Olson was in great form, striking out ten men and allowing only six hits, although he permitted five of the Ore Diggers to reach first base by the pass route. Olson was never in any real danger, his wonderful change of pace baffling the Ore Diggers. The ten strikeouts ran his total up to seventy for the season.

Carol of the Ore Diggers was hit freely and great support saved him when in trouble. Manager Schmidt fielded a nice game and accounted playing second base for Crosby, for two of his team's doubles.

Schwinneman hit three singles and played a real game in the outfield. Later he relieved Hurr behind the bat and caught a nice game. Nutting contributed two doubles to the local cause and Loom and Jarboe each came through with a triple. One of the bright spots of the game was a squeeze play executed by Nutting and Uddenberg in the 4th when Uddenberg laid down a pretty bunt to score Nutting from third for the locals' sixth run. The locals played heads up baseball throughout the game.

Brainerd got away to a three-run lead in the first inning when Nutting doubled, Uddenberg was hit by a pitched ball and Loom came through with a long triple to right field, scoring Nutting and Uddenberg. Loom scored on a long fly to right field.

The Brainerd N. P. team plays the fast traveling team of Happy Felsch tomorrow at 5 on Koering grounds. Felsch's All Stars have lost only one game out of their last 98 starts. The fans have a chance to see one of the principals of the 1919 world's series in action. Olson will be on the mound for Brainerd with Hurr behind the bat.

On Friday, August 24, the Gilkerson Colored Giants will play here in the final game of the season as the Brainerd N. P. team will start on a long road trip, August 25th, and will not return until September 5th.

Manager Peterson states that the fans will have an opportunity to see major league stars in action against Happy Felsch's Plentywood, Montana team. The locals have a good team despite the fact that they have no salaried players and they want the support of the Brainerd fans.

The score by innings:
Crosby 001 020 000—3
Brainerd 302 100 00X—6

JOE RYAN WINS THE COUNTRY CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

N. Y. GIANTS ARE ON TOP IN RACE OF NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants were on top in the National League pennant race today, as a result of three straight victories over the St. Louis Cardinals at St. Louis. The Giants won the final game yesterday, 3 to 2, the same score of the other two games. The Giants' lead is three percentage points.

There was no change in the American league race, the New York Yankees dividing a doubleheader with the Cleveland Indians, and holding their five-game lead over the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's were idle.

The standing of the two leaders in each major league follows:

| NATIONAL LEAGUE | | | | |
|-----------------|----|----|------|--------|
| Team | W. | L. | Pct. | Behind |
| New York | 36 | 33 | .606 | |
| St. Louis | 30 | 46 | .608 | 3 Pts. |

| AMERICAN LEAGUE | | | | |
|-----------------|----|----|------|--------|
| Team | W. | L. | Pct. | Behind |
| New York | 30 | 38 | .678 | |
| Philadelphia | 24 | 42 | .628 | 5 |

Watching the Scoreboard

(By United Press)

Yesterday's Hero—Bill Terry, New York Giants' first baseman, whose double in the fourth drove in two runs and enabled the McGrawmen to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 3 to 2, and go into the National league lead. Larry Benton, pitching his twenty-third complete game, won his twentieth victory of the season. Willie Sherdel held the Giants to six hits, but had one bad inning, in which the Giants made all their runs.

A costly error by Bancroft in the ninth permitted the Chicago Cubs to beat the Brooklyn Robins, 3 to 2.

The Cincinnati Reds went back into fourth place by beating the Boston Braves, 4 to 3. Drissen's double and Ford's single accounting for the winning run.

A crowd of 65,000 saw the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians divide a doubleheader. Martin Autry's home run with Morgan on base won the first game for the Indians, 3 to 2, in ten innings. Henry Johnson's brilliant pitching won the second game for the Yankees 10 to 2.

Fat Fothergill got four hits and scored three runs as the Detroit Tigers beat the Washington Senators, 9 to 6.

No other games were played.

DEFEATS YOUNG LINNEMANN, THE 1927 CHAMPION

REGAINS POSSESSION OF CHAMPIONSHIP CUP FOR THE SECOND TIME

RYAN, BY VIRTUE OF HIS 78 IN QUALIFYING ROUND, WAS MEDALIST

Joe Ryan again won the championship of the Brainerd Country club yesterday by defeating John Linnemann, last year's champion, 5 and 3. He thereby regained possession of the championship cup for the second time, having won it in 1926. Linnemann gained possession of the cup last year by defeating Ed Egan in the finals.

Joe Ryan by virtue of his 78 in the qualifying round also took home the medalist trophy. Saturday afternoon's matches resulted in Joe Ryan defeating J. H. Kinney, 5 and 3. Linnemann put Clem Ryan away by a score of 2 up. Hiller defeated Don Ryan 4 and 2, and Crowell disposed of Ed Egan, last year's runner-up, by 1 up.

In the semi-finals Joe Ryan defeated Hiller 6 and 4, while Linnemann took in Crowell by a 4 up count.

In the championship consolation flight A. C. Weber won the flight defeating Harry Larkin 2 up. They reached the finals by their defeats of Cobb and Walter Cleary respectively.

The second flight cup went to Wm. McClenahan when he won over Archer Crandall 1 up. Crandall defeated Melvin Carlson in the semi-finals 8 and 7. McClenahan won his match over John Thabes by default.

The weather was ideal for golf both days and a fairly large gathering followed the championship play. Much good golf was displayed and several upsets occurred. The enthusiasm of the club toward this year's tournament augers well for larger tournaments in the future, and the manner in which many near players are developing, points toward many upsets next year.

Storm Centers of Sport

By QUIN HALL.

EVERY so often the governing bodies which have control of amateur athletics in the United States rear up on their hind legs and deliver an oration on the question of amateurism and professionalism.

In so doing they either bring to some so-called new offense or revive an old issue which may have been more or less settled when it was first introduced.

Usually in such cases the athlete under fire is allowed to retain his amateur standing and it is difficult to see how the publicity attending these blow-offs is beneficial to the game—whether it be golf, tennis or pinocle.

During the last six weeks or so both the A. A. U., which is the Amateur Athletic Union, and the United States Lawn Tennis Association have had brain-storms of this character, and while alleged dirty linen belonging to both organizations has been flaunted throughout the United States and abroad the names of the athletes under fire have been cleared sufficiently to allow them to continue, at least during the events across the sea in which they were engaged.

It was the name of Charley

Paddock which first came into the limelight.

Charley's amateur standing was questioned by an inquisitive member of the A. A. U., and his rating as a passenger on the special ship to the Olympics was in jeopardy. It all came about through the fact that Charley had made a personal appearance tour with a movie in which he was starred. The governing body stirred up quite a mess over the affair, and the arguments pro and con were aired in the public press. The then "Fastest Human" cleared his name and made the trip over. He didn't win the event in which he specialized at Amsterdam, and if the Californian was the type who sought alibis he might well blame his showing on his mental poise being knocked galley west by the uproar raised by the A. A. U. before his departure.

The case of Paddock scarcely had been given time to cool off when the governing tennis body announced the suspension of William T. Tilden just prior to the Davis Cup matches in Paris.

The charges leading to the suspension of Big Bill had to do with some newspaper reporting which he had done following the matches at Wimbledon, England. It seems that the mere business of expiring for the press is allowed, but it is a misdemeanor of some sort to report games in which the expert is an active contestant. Bill did just this at Wimbledon and so drew the wrath of the U. S. L. T. A. upon himself. Through the intervention of the French Tennis Association and Ambassador Herrick, Tilden was reinstated. The United States lost the matches, and here again, if alibis were being sought, the defeat might be stretched out before the doors of the U. S. L. T. A.

Both Paddock and Tilden have had their allotted number of runs with the governing bodies of their controlling organizations and it is probable that more along the same lines will be heard in the future.

Bobby Jones turned down the offer of a beautiful home which his neighbors in Atlanta, Ga., were anxious to give him in order that his amateur standing as a golfer could not be questioned and there are many similar cases.

Looking at it from purely an outsider's standpoint, it would seem that an amateur athlete should figure his future before his birth and plan to be born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

BRAINERD DEFEATS CROSBY ORE DIGGERS, SCORE 6 TO 3

LOCALS POUND OUT ELEVEN SAFE HITS IN GAME

REAP SWEET REVENGE FOR
THEIR 4TH OF JULY LOSS AT
HANDS OF RANGE

OLSON, IN GREAT FORM, STRIKES
OUT 10, ALLOWS ONLY
SIX HITS

The Brainerd baseball team dropped the Crosby Ore Diggers by a score of 6 to 3 in a free hitting contest yesterday when the locals pounded out a total of eleven safe hits, among them two doubles and two triples. The locals seem to have found their batting eye again and they reaped sweet revenge for their fourth of July defeat at the hands of Crosby.

Olson was in great form, striking out ten men and allowing only six hits, although he permitted five of the Ore Diggers to reach first base by the pass route. Olson was never in any real danger, his wonderful change of pace baffling the Ore Diggers. The ten strikeouts ran his total up to seventy for the season.

Carol of the Ore Diggers was hit freely and great support saved him when in trouble. Manager Schmidt fielded a nice game and accounted playing second base for Crosby, for two of his team's doubles.

Schwindeman hit three singles and played a real game in the outfield. Later he relieved Hurr behind the bat and caught a nice game. Nutting contributed two doubles to the local cause and Loom and Jarboe each came through with a triple. One of the bright spots of the game was a squeeze play executed by Nutting and Uddenberg in the 4th when Uddenberg laid down a pretty bunt to score Nutting from third for the locals' sixth run. The locals played heads up baseball throughout the game.

Brainerd got away to a three-run lead in the first inning when Nutting doubled, Uddenberg was hit by a pitched ball and Loom came through with a long triple to right field, scoring Nutting and Uddenberg. Loom scored on a long fly to right field.

The Brainerd N. P. team plays the fast traveling team of Happy Felsch tomorrow at 5 on Koering grounds. Felsch's All Stars have lost only one game out of their last 38 starts. The fans have a chance to see one of the principals of the 1919 world's series in action. Olson will be on the mound for Brainerd with Hurr behind the bat.

On Friday, August 24, the Gilkinson Colored Giants will play here in the final game of the season as the Brainerd N. P. team will start on a long road trip, August 25th, and will not return until September 5th.

Manager Peterson states that the fans will have an opportunity to see major league stars in action against Happy Felsch's Plentywood, Montana team. The locals have a good team despite the fact that they have no salaried players and they want the support of the Brainerd fans.

The score by innings:

N. Y. GIANTS ARE ON TOP IN RACE OF NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, Aug. 20.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants were on top in the National league pennant race today, as a result of three straight victories over the St. Louis Cardinals at St. Louis. The Giants won the final game yesterday, 3 to 2, the same score of the other two games. The Giants' lead is three percentage points.

There was no change in the American league race, the New York Yankees dividing a doubleheader with the Cleveland Indians, and holding their five-game lead over the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's were idle.

The standing of the two leaders in each major league follows:

| NATIONAL LEAGUE | | | | |
|-----------------|----|----|------|--------------|

| New York | 46 | 33 | .586 | |
| St. Louis | 40 | 40 | .500 | 3 Pts. |

Watching the Scoreboard

(By United Press)

Yesterday's Hero—Bill Terry, New York Giants' first baseman, whose double in the fourth drove in two runs and enabled the McGrawmen to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 3 to 2 and go into the National league lead. Larry Benton, pitching his twenty-third complete game, won his twentieth victory of the season. Willie Sherdel held the Giants to six hits, but had one bad inning, in which the Giants made all their runs.

A costly error by Bancroft in the ninth permitted the Chicago Cubs to beat the Brooklyn Robins, 3 to 2. The Cincinnati Reds went back into fourth place by beating the Boston Braves, 4 to 3. Drusen's double and Ford's single accounting for the winning run.

A crowd of 65,000 saw the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians divide a doubleheader. Martin Autry's home run with Morgan on base won the first game for the Indians, 3 to 2, in ten innings. Henry Johnson's brilliant pitching won the second game for the Yankees 10 to 2.

Fat Fothergill got four hits and scored three runs as the Detroit Tigers beat the Washington Senators, 9 to 6.

No other games were played.

DEFEATS YOUNG LINNEMANN, THE 1927 CHAMPION

REGAINS POSSESSION OF CHAMPIONSHIP CUP FOR THE SECOND TIME

RYAN, BY VIRTUE OF HIS 78 IN
QUALIFYING ROUND, WAS MEDALIST

Joe Ryan again won the championship of the Brainerd Country club yesterday by defeating John Linnemann, last year's champion, 5 and 3. He thereby regained possession of the championship cup for the second time, having won it in 1926. Linnemann gained possession of the cup last year by defeating Ed Egan in the finals.

Joe Ryan by virtue of his 78 in the qualifying round also took home the medalist trophy.

Saturday afternoon's matches resulted in Joe Ryan defeating J. H. Kinney, 5 and 3. Linnemann put Clem Ryan away by a score of 2 up. Hiller defeated Don Ryan 4 and 2, and Croswell disposed of Ed Egan, last year's runner-up, by 1 up.

In the semi-finals Joe Ryan defeated Hiller 6 and 4, while Linnemann took in Croswell by a 4 up count.

In the championship consolation flight A. C. Weber won the flight defeating Harry Larkin 2 up. They reached the finals by their defeats of Cobb and Walter Cleary respectively.

The second flight cup went to Wm. McClenahan when he won over Archer Crandall 1 up. Crandall defeated Melvin Carlson in the semi-finals 8 and 7. McClenahan won his match over John Thabes by default.

The weather was ideal for golf both days and a fairly large gathering followed the championship play. Much good golf was displayed and several upsets occurred. The enthusiasm of the club toward this year's tournament augers well for larger tournaments in the future, and the manner in which many near players are developing, points toward many upsets next year.

The case of Paddock scarcely had been given time to cool off when the governing tennis body announced the suspension of William T. Tilden just prior to the Davis Cup matches in Paris.

The charges leading to the suspension of Big Bill had to do with some newspaper reporting which he had done following the matches at Wimbledon, England. It seems that the more business of exporting for the press is allowed, but it is a misdemeanor of some sort to report games in which the expert is an active contestant. Bill did just this at Wimbledon and so drew the wrath of the U. S. L. T. A. upon himself. Through the intervention of the French Tennis Association and Ambassador Herrick, Tilden was reinstated. The United States lost the matches, and here again, if alibis were being sought, the defeat might be stretched out before the doors of the U. S. L. T. A.

Both Paddock and Tilden have had their allotted number of runs with the governing bodies of their controlling organizations and it is probable that more along the same lines will be heard in the future.

Bobby Jones turned down the offer of a beautiful home which his neighbors in Atlanta, Ga., were anxious to give him in order that his amateur standing as a golfer could not be questioned and there are many similar cases.

Looking at it from purely an outsider's standpoint it would seem that an amateur athlete should figure his future before his birth and plan to be born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

Live Stock TB Being Conquered

Doctor Wight Presents Facts and Figures to Substan- tiate Statement.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The allied forces of eradication are gradually crushing the menace of tuberculosis of live stock in the United States. This was the encouraging announcement made by Dr. A. E. Wight, chief of the tuberculosis eradication division, United States Department of Agriculture, before the ninth annual Eastern States Tuberculosis conference, held at The Weirs, N. H.

In support of his optimistic views, Doctor Wight presented an array of facts and figures showing the current progress of the campaign.

Facts and Figures.

"During the last 12 months, federal, state, and county veterinarians, working under the uniform co-operative plan, tested more cattle than during any other 12-month period. During two of the months (October, 1927, and March, 1928), the number of cattle tested exceeded 1,000,000 head and the number has been nearly as high on several other occasions, as shown by monthly reports.

"Within the last year, 187 counties completed the testing of all cattle within their borders and were recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture as modified accredited counties. This term signifies that infection did not exceed one-half of one per cent and that in addition old reactors were removed.

"In 90 per cent of the area of the United States tuberculosis infection among cattle is not more than 3 per cent.

Controlled Diseases.

"Along with the aggressive campaign of eradication, the administrative officials have controlled the spread of the disease. About 45,000 cattle are moved monthly from one state to another for dairy and breeding purposes. Tuberculosis tests of this stock have resulted in the discovery and removal of reactors averaging somewhat over 250 a month. Except for this safeguard, the diseased cattle would probably carry the infection to new herds and areas. With the increasing numbers of counties that are being freed from tuberculosis, farmers should soon be able to obtain healthy, new stock locally, with benefit to home industry and a considerable saving in transportation charges.

"That the eradication of tuberculosis involves small loss to cattle owners, especially when the benefits of healthy herds are considered, is shown by appraisal, indemnity, and salvage figures.

"The average appraised value of cattle condemned because of tuberculosis was $109.61 during the 12-month period ending April 30, 1928. The combined value of federal and state indemnity and salvage was $85.48. This figure is within $25 of the appraised value and represents the amount that the owner received for the average diseased animal. The sum which the owner receives is commonly used toward the purchase of healthy stock, usually of better quality than those condemned."

Proper Development of

Heifers of Importance

Dairy heifers which freshen too young, or which do not receive proper feed so they reach their proper size, are often less profitable than heifers which are properly developed. A case of this kind is reported by a county cow testing association. Two heifers which are full sisters and which were in the same herd, freshening at different ages. One heifer freshened at two years of age while the other was bred early and was only eighteen months old when she calved. As a result one heifer will grow into a 1,200-pound cow while the other is stunted.

The stunted heifer during the first six months of lactation produced 2,636 pounds of milk containing 108 pounds of fat. The larger heifer during the first six months produced 3,826 pounds of milk containing 167 pounds of fat. The larger heifer returned $54.80 above feed costs, while the stunted heifer only returned $16.16.

Agricultural Squibs

Do not milk cows completely dry for 48 hours after calving.

Watch the garden for the insect visitors. A bug in time saves nine, and it saves the garden, too.

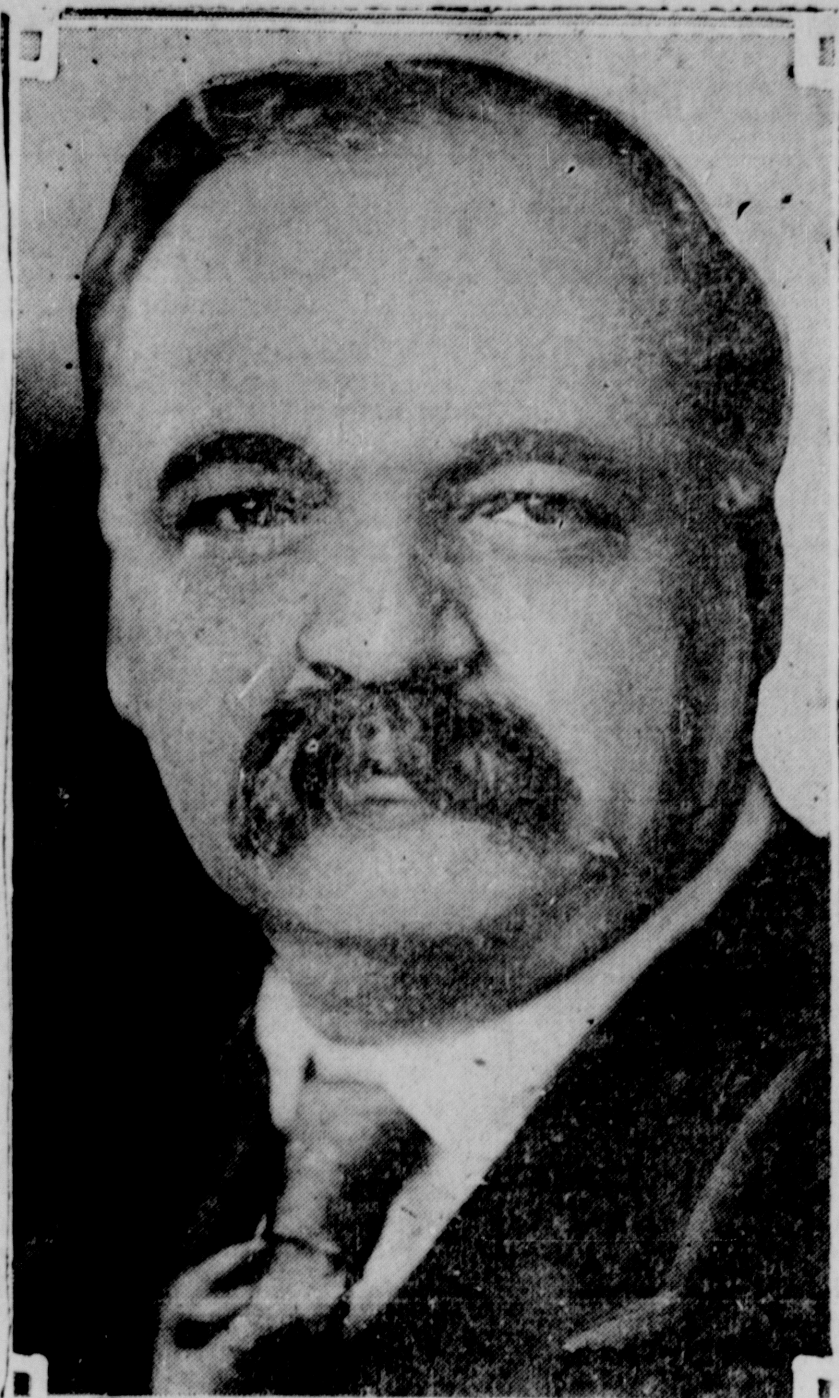

Dipping is the only known practical method of eradicating sucking or biting lice from sheep and goats.

Hogs seem to have a special liking for wild morning glories, and if given a chance will destroy the vines by going after the succulent roots.

Crowding young chicks is false economy. Failure to give the chicks ample room is a serious mistake, for congested conditions usually lead to stunted growth and heavy mortality.

Dairy farmers are looking more and more toward leguminous hay crops for their roughage. Alfalfa is very profitable where the soil is suitable, and where liming, proper preparation of seedbed, hardy seed, and inoculation have been attended to.

FRANK B. SCHMIT HEADS STATE MOOSE

Minneapolis Man Elected at Closing Business Session Held on Saturday

SPORTS PROGRAM SUNDAY

Place of Next Convention is Left to Executive Committee of Order

Moose from all over the state were returning to their homes today after a three day state convention held here Friday, Saturday and Sunday. A big feature of the convention was the parade held Saturday evening, which started at Gregory Park and Sixth street and wended its way through the business districts. The two Brainerd ladies bands, the Brainerd Boy Scouts drum and bugle corps, and a five and drum corps from Duluth furnished the music for the parade. The various delegates interspersed with clowns and floats completed the parade lineup.

The Moose state convention closed its business sessions late Saturday afternoon by electing these officers:

President—Frank B. Schmit, Minneapolis.

Mr. Schmit has been an active worker in Moose ranks for many years and has held other offices. His son E. W. Schmit is owner of the Service News Agency in Brainerd.

Two vice presidents for each of the five districts in the state jurisdiction:

First—Joe Uebelacker, West Duluth; Agatha Bregal, Duluth.

Second—F. J. Dumbrosky, Chisholm; Anna Laplant, Virginia.

Third—E. W. Glass, Biwabik; Fley Raunee, Eveleth.

Fourth—George L. Egan, Brainerd; Mabel Linsten, International Falls.

Fifth—R. H. Hutchinson, Minneapolis; Viola A. Scott, Minneapolis.

Trustee for three years—George E. Ericson, Brainerd.

The other two trustees, Martin N. Hansen, Duluth, and John Brown, Eveleth, hold over.

The term of Secretary-Treasurer Steve Sullivan, Virginia, continues a year longer.

Selection of the next convention city was left in the hands of the executive committee.

Resolutions adopted extended thanks to all who had made the convention a success. The three Mooseheart officials, Ben O'Hara, Mrs. Emma Hanke and Paul B. Schmit were thanked for their cooperation.

An amendment adopted raised the per capita tax from 5 cents to 10 cents effective January 1, 1929.

The drill team contest held in the Elks hall Saturday morning was won by the Duluth ladies drill team over the competing team of Minneapolis ladies.

The Duluth ladies also walked away with the honors in the ritualistic contest held in Moose hall at 10 a. m. yesterday.

The giving away of a "live white baby" which turned out to be a little pig at 7:30 Saturday night proved to be quite a merriment maker among the convention delegates and visitors.

From 8 o'clock until 12 o'clock Saturday night the block between Seventh and Broadway streets on Front street was virtually packed with dancers at a big open air dance.

The music for the dancing was furnished by the Brainerd Ladies band under the direction of Miss Effie Drexler.

At 9 o'clock Saturday night a radio program was broadcast from Mooseheart, Ill., for convention listeners.

At 9:30 p. m. the institution of the Cuyuna Legion occurred.

The Moose attended services at the local churches at 8 a. m. yesterday and at 9:30 a. m. they took auto rides to the Cuyuna Iron Range, lake regions, Breezy Point and Grand View Lodge.

The sport program postponed from Friday afternoon was held at Lum Park yesterday morning.

A marathon race from Front and Sixth streets to Lum Park and a water carnival at Lum Park comprised the afternoon program.

"Dixie" Thompson gave a half-hour water exhibition. Her under water endurance test was not intended to lower any records owing to the strenuous work remaining on her program.

She was variously timed by watchers from one minute 6½ seconds to one minute 48 seconds. The official timekeeper seemed to have some trouble with his stop watch.

After her fancy diving act, "Dixie" thrilled the crowd with her famous "sack escape", being tied securely in a stout canvas sack with a lead belt about the waist to take her to the bottom.

She freed herself, unaided, at the bottom of Rice lake in approximately one minute, bringing the sack to the surface uninjured and the knots, which were tied on the outside, were all untied.

No apparatus of any kind was on hand to raise the sack if she failed to free herself, thus demonstrating her confidence in her under water endurance and her ability to perform the stunt originated by the great Houdini, and which she alone now performs in open water.

The crowd at the water carnival

was estimated at 4,000 by Carl Wright, chairman of the executive committee for the convention. The Park Board enjoyed the largest day in its history financially.

Speed Boat Races

The speed boat races provided a thrill for many of the spectators at Lum Park yesterday. Owing to the fact that boats are classed according to the stroke, bore, and number of cylinders in the motor the same boat with a different motor was able to compete in more than one race.

There were no class A boats entered. The results of the races and the prizes awarded were as follows:

Class B, won by Harry James, $15; 2nd, C. B. Casper, $7.50; 3rd, Jack Cooper, $2.50.

Class C, won by C. B. Casper, $15; 2nd, Creekside Boatworks, $7.50; 3rd, Harry James, $2.50.

Class D, won by C. B. Casper, $15; 2nd, W. E. Sickner of Duluth, $7.50; 3rd, Creekside Boatworks, $2.50.

Free for all, won by W. E. Sickner of Duluth, $15; 2nd, C. B. Casper, $7.50; 3rd, Creekside Boatworks, $2.50.

NAME FLOWER SHOW JUDGES

Four Well Known Flower Growers Chosen Including President of State Society

SIX PROFESSIONAL DISPLAYS

Tourists and Summer Residents Especially Invited to Attend the Show

The Crow Wing County Garden Flower society have been extremely fortunate in securing exhibits from some of the most prominent professional growers in the mid-west. At least six have signified their intention of making displays at the fifth annual fall show. Among those are A. J. Anderson of White Bear Lake, Minn., "The Home of the World's Finest Gladioli"; A. J. Wilkus of Riverview Gardens, St. Paul; Holm and Olson, St. Paul; A. D. Miller of Ziller Gardens, Altink; W. E. Paul, Brainerd, Brainerd Greenhouse; and A. P. Cardie, Brainerd. Several others may be in the list by Wednesday.

The above growers do not compete for the prizes and enter their flowers for exhibition only. This is the greatest list of professional growers that have ever exhibited in Brainerd and is in keeping with the aim to make this year's show the greatest in the history of the society. It is estimated that there will be over 2,000 blooms of some 200 varieties on display from professional growers alone. These augmented by the local entries should bring the number of blooms up well over 5,000 according to Dr. L. F. Hawkinson. This display insures wide attendance. There is no charge for admittance or entry of blooms.

In entire keeping with the growth of the show, the society has secured four of the best judges of flowers in the state. The judges are: Mrs. W. W. Remington, president of the State Garden Flower society; Mrs. A. J. Anderson of White Bear Lake, one of the largest raisers of high class Gladioli in the middle west; A. Furrow of Gull Lake, who is one of the largest professional florists in Oklahoma; and W. E. Miller of Altink.

Local entries are needed to fill the competitive classes. The society wants everyone who grows flowers to enter one or more classes. The tendency is to under-rate your own flowers and every year there are several classes where a fairly good bloom would win a prize. Some growers think that their own blooms are inferior to their neighbors', but the small grower with a few flowers, usually have better grown and prize-winning blooms. It is not necessary that you be a member of the society to win a prize. There are only two classes in the 83 that are not open to all. These are the sweepstakes for gladioli and dahlias and the cups were given with the stipulation that they could be won only by a member of the Garden Flower society. But there are 81 classes, with 240 prizes that are open to anyone in Crow Wing county.

A special invitation is issued to the tourists and summer residents of the Brainerd lake region. Posters have been placed in many of the summer resorts announcing the show and it is the hope that they will view the exhibition one of the two days.

The show closes at 4 p. m. the afternoon of August 23 with the sale of all the blooms. The proceeds are used to aid in defraying some of the expenses of staging the exhibit.

SEVENTY EXPRESS ESTEEM TO REV. LONG

Gather at Summer Home of Mrs. F. S. Parker to Honor Rector

TO LEAVE SEPTEMBER 1

Elected Delegate to Triennial Convention to be Held in Washington

Over 70 guests were graciously welcomed by Mrs. F. S. Parker at her summer home at Parkerville Friday night when friends and members of the St. Paul's Episcopal church came to express their appreciation and esteem of their rector and friend, the Rev. Robert J. Long. An elaborate buffet supper was served in Mrs. Parker's dining room. She was assisted in the serving by her daughters, Mrs. R. T. Campbell and Mrs. G. E. Brown of Rochester and the following ladies: Mrs. J. R. Smith, Mrs. R. J. Hartley, Mrs. J. G. Heald, Mrs. Joseph S. Golemboski and Mrs. J. E. Robertson.

After enjoying the repast the guests were called together and in a most fitting manner by R. T. Campbell who expressed the high esteem and affection of the many friends of the Rev. Mr. Long. Mr. Campbell spoke of the sincere regret that is felt in Mr. Long leaving Brainerd. He recalled the splendid work the Rev. Mr. Long has accomplished in St. Paul's church during the past three years during which time the parish has advanced in a most remarkable manner.

According to Mr. Campbell the number of members has been more than doubled. An unusual number have been baptized and confirmed. For example the parish register shows that during the past 25 years 230 have been confirmed in the local parish while the Rev. Mr. Long has presented 58 for confirmation in this number in less than two years. This is equal to the number during the ten years preceding his pastorate. Mr. Campbell also recalled the deep and sympathetic interest that the Rev. Mr. Long has taken in the young people in the parish and the community. Mr. Campbell expressed the desire of the hosts of friends that although the Rev. Mr. Long will be leaving Brainerd September 1 it is hoped that he will return to the city frequently to visit his many friends.

In token of the esteem and affection of his friends in the parish and on their behalf Mr. Campbell presented a check to the Rev. Mr. Long for $75 and requested that he use it to procure a festival white preaching stole to be used as a continual remembrance of his loyal parishioners here.

W. H. Gemmell then spoke in appreciation of the place and work of the Rev. Mr. Long's capable and efficient assistant, Herman Brichacek. He particularly commended his work and faithfulness in the Sunday school and choir. Mr. Gemmell then presented Mr. Brichacek with his official badge of office in the Diocese of Duluth in the form of a bronze cross and the ecclesiastical colored ribbons, one for each church season. Mr. Brichacek responded in a few brief words of thanks.

Again the Rev. Mr. Long was surprised by the gracious presentation of a check for $250 from friends within and without the parish as a mark of appreciation of his election as one of the clergy delegates of the Diocese of Duluth to the Triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal churches in the United States. This convention will be held in Washington, D. C., during the month of October.

The Rev. Mr. Long will attend this convention and this check is to assist in paying his expenses. To be a delegate to this great gathering is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a minister of the Episcopal church. This is the first time that a clergyman while rector of St. Paul's church has been so elected.

Following this program and the expression of good wishes to the guest of honor by all present, the guests departed.

New York, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Only two of twenty-eight guards over 3,000 prisoners in a penal colony on the island of Palawan, Philippines, carry guns, so great has been the responsibility developed among the convicts, Prof. J. L. Gillin, University of Wisconsin student of penal conditions, said here.

JOHN COOLIDGE RETURNS FROM VISIT WITH FRANK

Madison, Wis., Aug. 20.—(AP)—John Coolidge, son of the president, has returned to Superior after a weekend in Madison as the houseguest of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Frank.

John came here last Friday, and the first two days of his visit were taken up with golf, dinners, dances and auto trips about Madison.

ACCIDENT AT 7TH AND MAPLE Cars of Gus Branting and Raymond Wilson Slightly Damaged Early Saturday Night

A Ford sedan driven by Gus Branting of Northeast Brainerd and a Ford coupe driven by Raymond Wilson of the Clinton Falls Nursery Co. of Owatonna collided at the corner of Maple and Seventh streets about 5:30 P. M. Saturday with slight damage to both cars although no one was injured in the accident. The left rear fender and the running board of the Owatonna car were badly bent and the right rear tire almost knocked off its rim by the impact. The Ford sedan suffered a bent front fender and a bent front axle.

Wilson was going straight east on Maple street and Branting was coming west on Maple street and turned to the left on Seventh street when the accident happened. Wilson apparently failed to see Branting's signal for a left hand turn and the two cars came together. F. E. Hannigan also of the Clinton Falls Nursery company was a passenger of the Wilson car and four small grandchildren were with Branting when the collision occurred.

A Marvelous New MAYTAG Feature—

The Soft-Roller Water Remover

THIS sectional view of the New Maytag Roller Water Remover shows how the semi-soft, balloon-type upper roll hugs the bottom roll, thus increasing the actual working surface three or four times.

In like manner, the roll flexes about the seams, folds and lumps in the clothes, removing both soap and water evenly from all parts of the garment. This results in quicker, more even drying on the line, and no yellow spots.

Buttons, buckles, snaps or an ornament go through safely. Then, too, there is a safety feed board, an automatic tension adjustment, a drainboard which reverses itself and an instant safety release.

The Roller Water Remover is compact, all metal and all gears are thoroughly enclosed. It swings and locks in seven different positions. Can you imagine anything more complete and convenient? Do you wonder that it has been a sensation?

FRANK B. SCHMIT HEADS STATE MOOSE

Minneapolis Man Elected at Closing Business Session Held on Saturday

SPORTS PROGRAM SUNDAY

Place of Next Convention is Left to Executive Committee of Order

Moose from all over the state were returning to their homes today after a three day state convention held here Friday, Saturday and Sunday. A big feature of the convention was the parade held Saturday evening, which started at Gregory Park and Sixth street and wended its way through the business districts. The two Brainerd ladies bands, the Brainerd Boy Scouts drum and bugle corps, and a five and drum corps from Duluth furnished the music for the parade. The various delegates interspersed with clowns and floats completed the parade lineup.

The Moose state convention closed its business sessions late Saturday afternoon by electing these officers:

President—Frank B. Schmit, Minneapolis.

Mr. Schmit has been an active worker in Moose ranks for many years and has held other offices. His son E. W. Schmit is owner of the Service News Agency in Brainerd.

Two vice presidents for each of the five districts in the state jurisdiction:

First—Joe Uebelacker, West Duluth; Agatha Bregal, Duluth.

Second—F. J. Dumbrosky, Chisholm; Anna Laplant, Virginia.

Third—E. W. Glass, Biwabik; Fley Raunee, Eveleth.

Fourth—George L. Egan, Brainerd; Mabel Linsten, International Falls.

Fifth—R. H. Hutchinson, Minneapolis; Viola A. Scott, Minneapolis.

Trustee for three years—George E. Ericson, Brainerd.

The other two trustees, Martin N. Hansen, Duluth, and John Brown, Eveleth, hold over.

The term of Secretary-Treasurer Steve Sullivan, Virginia, continues a year longer.

Selection of the next convention city was left in the hands of the executive committee.

Resolutions adopted extended thanks to all who had made the convention a success. The three Mooseheart officials, Ben O'Hara, Mrs. Emma Hanke and Paul B. Schmit were thanked for their cooperation.

An amendment adopted raised the per capita tax from 5 cents to 10 cents effective January 1, 1929.

The drill team contest held in the Elks hall Saturday morning was won by the Duluth ladies drill team over the competing team of Minneapolis ladies.

The Duluth ladies also walked away with the honors in the ritualistic contest held in Moose hall at 10 a. m. yesterday.

The giving away of a "live white baby" which turned out to be a little pig at 7:30 Saturday night proved to be quite a meriment maker among the convention delegates and visitors.

From 8 o'clock until 12 o'clock Saturday night the block between Seventh and Broadway streets on Front street was virtually packed with dancers at a big open air dance.

The music for the dancing was furnished by the Brainerd Ladies band under the direction of Miss Effie Drexler.

At 9 o'clock Saturday night a radio program was broadcast from Mooseheart, Ill., for convention listeners.

At 9:30 p. m. the institution of the Cuyuna Legion occurred.

The Moose attended services at the local churches at 8 a. m. yesterday and at 9:30 a. m. they took auto rides to the Cuyuna Iron Range, lake regions, Breezy Point and Grand View Lodge.

The sport program postponed from Friday afternoon was held at Lum Park yesterday morning. A marathon race from Front and Sixth streets to Lum Park and a water carnival at Lum Park comprised the afternoon program.

"Dixie" Thompson gave a half-hour water exhibition. Her underwater endurance test was not intended to lower any records owing to the strenuous work remaining on her program. She was variously timed by watchers from one minute 6 1/2 seconds to one minute 48 seconds. The official timekeeper seemed to have some trouble with his stop watch. After her fancy diving act, "Dixie" thrilled the crowd with her famous "sack escape", being tied securely in a stout canvas sack with a lead belt about the waist to take her to the bottom. She freed herself, unaided, at the bottom of Rice lake in approximately one minute, bringing the sack to the surface uninjured and the knots, which were tied on the outside, were all untied. No apparatus of any kind was on hand to raise the sack if she failed to free herself, thus demonstrating her confidence in her underwater endurance and her ability to perform the stunt originated by the great Houdini, and which she alone now performs in open water.

The crowd at the water-carnival

was estimated at 4,000 by Carl Wright, chairman of the executive committee for the convention. The Park Board enjoyed the largest day in its history financially.

Speed Boat Races

The speed boat races provided a thrill for many of the spectators at Lum Park yesterday. Owing to the fact that boats are classed according to the stroke, bore, and number of cylinders in the motor the same boat with a different motor was able to compete in more than one race.

There were no class A boats entered. The results of the races and the prizes awarded were as follows:

Class B, won by Harry James, $15; 2nd, C. B. Casper, $7.50; 3rd, Jack Cooper, $2.50.

Class C, won by C. B. Casper, $15; 2nd, Creekside Boatworks, $7.50; 3rd, Harry James, $2.50.

Class D, won by C. B. Casper, $15; 2nd, W. E. Sickner of Duluth, $7.50; 3rd, Creekside Boatworks, $2.50.

Free for all, won by W. E. Sickner of Duluth, $15; 2nd, C. B. Casper, $7.50; 3rd, Creekside Boatworks, $2.50.

President—Frank B. Schmit, Minneapolis.

SEVENTY EXPRESS ESTEEM TO REV. LONG

Gather at Summer Home of Mrs. F. S. Parker to Honor Rector

TO LEAVE SEPTEMBER 1

Elected Delegate to Triennial Convention to be Held in Washington

Over 70 guests were graciously welcomed by Mrs. F. S. Parker at her summer home at Parkerville Friday night when friends and members of the St. Paul's Episcopal church came to express their appreciation and esteem of their rector and friend, the Rev. Robert J. Long.

An elaborate buffet supper was served in Mrs. Parker's dining room. She was assisted in the serving by her daughters, Mrs. R. T. Campbell and Mrs. G. E. Brown of Rochester and the following ladies: Mrs. J. R. Smith, Mrs. R. J. Hartley, Mrs. J. G. Heald, Mrs. Joseph S. Golemboski and Mrs. J. E. Robertson.

After enjoying the repast the guests were called together and in a most fitting manner by R. T. Campbell who expressed the high esteem and affection of the many friends of the Rev. Mr. Long. Mr. Campbell spoke of the sincere regret that is felt in Mr. Long leaving Brainerd. He recalled the splendid work the Rev. Mr. Long has accomplished in St. Paul's church during the past three years during which time the parish has advanced in a most remarkable manner.

According to Mr. Campbell the number of members has been more than doubled. An unusual number have been baptized and confirmed. For example the parish register shows that during the past 25 years 230 have been confirmed in the local parish while the Rev. Mr. Long has presented 58 for confirmation in this number in less than two years. This is equal to the number during the ten years preceding his pastorate. Mr. Campbell also recalled the deep and sympathetic interest that the Rev. Mr. Long has taken in the young people in the parish and the community. Mr. Campbell expressed the desire of the hosts of friends that although the Rev. Mr. Long will be leaving Brainerd September 1 it is hoped that he will return to the city frequently to visit his many friends.

In token of the esteem and affection of his friends in the parish and on their behalf Mr. Campbell presented a check to the Rev. Mr. Long for $75 and requested that he use it to procure a festival white preaching stole to be used as a continual remembrance of his loyal parishioners here.

W. H. Gemmell then spoke in appreciation of the place and work of the Rev. Mr. Long's capable and efficient assistant, Herman Brichacek. He particularly commended his work and faithfulness in the Sunday school and choir. Mr. Gemmell then presented Mr. Brichacek with his official badge of office in the Diocese of Duluth in the form of a bronze cross and the ecclesiastical colored ribbons, one for each church season. Mr. Brichacek responded in a few brief words of thanks.

Again the Rev. Mr. Long was surprised by the gracious presentation of a check for $250 from friends within and without the parish as a mark of appreciation of his election as one of the clergy delegates of the Diocese of Duluth to the Triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal churches in the United States. This convention will be held in Washington, D. C., during the month of October.

The Rev. Mr. Long will attend this convention and this check is to assist in paying his expenses. To be a delegate to this great gathering is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a minister of the Episcopal church. This is the first time that a clergyman while rector of St. Paul's church has been so elected.

Following this program and the expression of good wishes to the guest of honor by all present, the guests departed.

Love's Ecstasy

by May Christie

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

ALEDA RAY, pretty country girl working in New York as a secretary, and Gary Chester, young engineer, are in love. Alveda is living with Marise de Rense and the latter's young sophisticated sister, Goldie. Through jealousy, Goldie creates a break between Alveda and Gary. W. B. Lingard, employer of Alveda and Gary, after years of search meets Marise, sweetheart of his youth. Eaves-dropping, Goldie learns that Marise is not her sister—but her mother! She demands an explanation and Marise pours out the story of her tragic early marriage to a convict who has since died. Goldie leaves home. Alveda visits her parents in the country and meets Gary. Love blooms anew. Gary sails for Italy on a business trip. Later, Lingard is forced to make a hurried trip to Paris and takes Alveda along as secretary. His niece, the Countess Dellamanc, acting as chaperone.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER LII.

THE boat-train that runs from Harve to Paris moved slowly out of its big shed.

At the window of a first-class compartment (there are three grades of travel on the French railroads) sat Alveda. She was athrill with joy and excitement—filled with tremendous zest. This was the France that she had read about!

Children in black overalls or smocks, their little hands outstretched for pennies (one cent was quite a windfall for them!) ran merrily alongside the moving train.

Old women—hatless, in ancient woolen shawls and endless petticoats—supported huge baskets of oranges. Below the windows, with much gesticulation, they peddled their wares.

The train gathered speed. Alveda removed her hat, leaned back comfortably to survey the scene.

How entirely different was this land from her own United States! The picturesque small farms, red-roofed, with innumerable tiny orchards, and cabbage patches so little that they were no bigger than an ordinary dining-table! How thoroughly was every scrap of France under cultivation!

Women in wooden shoes—just like the picture of the Angelus! were working in the fields alongside the men. Enormous horses pulled heavy, two-wheeled carts. There were exquisite old chateaux, set in lovely smiling landscape, and along the country roads, workmen were peddling to and from their labors on bicycles.

The Countess Dellamanc, surrounded by dressing-cases, smelling salts, eau-de-cologne, traveling pillows, soon was on the seat opposite Alveda, her eyes closed.

It had been slightly stormy just before their landing, and the niece of Alveda's employer felt "indisposed."

With difficulty, Alveda kept back little excited murmurs. How delightfully quaint and unexpected was this Normandy!

The Countess opened her eyes, reached for a gold-stoppered bottle, and put it delicately to her nostrils.

"I always think France so smelly!" sniffed she.

But Alveda was in no mood to listen to complaints. She was a female Columbus in new worlds, watching an old civilization enthusiastically!

"See the fishermen with the hand-poles! Oh! that must surely be the river Seine!" she exclaimed, unable to keep silent, her gaze on the reed-fringed stream below the railroad tracks. "The men look like statues—as though they'd been there since the French revolution!"

The Countess made a dainty moue, as though such common creatures were beneath her comment. "Why worry about the bourgeoisie?"

A smiling conductor promenaded the corridor. In French he cried: "Third luncheon is served." The Countess forgot her maledere, and rose immediately. Briskly she said: "They have excellent food on these trains, and a glass of champagne will set me up."

She led the way through the violently swaying coaches to the little tables set under the long windows, each bearing its bottles of vintage.

Beaming waiters darted hither and yon. A contagious cheeriness emanated from French railroad servants, especially when in proximity to the good American dollar! There was exuberance, too, among the passengers—like children let loose from school on holiday—much popping of corks, and rattle of glasses.

"They drive their trains much too fast," said the Countess, "though I will say there aren't half so many accidents now, as just after the war! THEN it was a perfect scandal! NOW we're comparatively safe! Hi, garcon!"—she twisted her long body around, beckoning imperiously to a waiter—"A half bottle of 1914 Delbec!"

That revived her. She became quite pleasantly patronizing to Alveda, whose eager eyes drank in the unaccustomed scene most pleasurably, and who lent a scant ear to the Countess's talk.

Then she caught Gary Chester's name. She flushed a little.

"Such a charming fellow! My uncle thinks the world of his ability! He's on quite an important mission down in Italy. Have you ever met him?" the Countess asked.

Alveda nodded, trying to seem careless and indifferent.

About her meeting with Gary, how much did this sharp-eyed, sharp-voiced woman really know?

"Gary Chester has very frequently been my escort," remarked William B. Lingard's niece complacently.

The train glided into Paris. Blue-blossomed, garlie-breathing porters streamed into the coaches, hurrying luggage at each other through the windows, laughing good-naturedly, gesticulating, chattering like monkeys, eternally seeking their beloved "pour boire" (which means, "to drink" or tip, pronounced "teep").

Tiny little taxi-cabs flew, fast as fire-engines, in and out the railroad station, with red-checked and black-bearded drivers at the wheel.

All and was merriment and bustle and extraordinary confusion over baggage and the customs—which fuss is so essentially French!

William B. Lingard got quick service. Soon he and his niece and secretary were careening in the best French taxi manner towards the Ritz.

According to the cable she had sent to Italy just one week ago, Gary might be at the hotel, waiting for them?

Her heart mounted, suffocatingly.

Practical Summer Play Suits for Youngsters

Pantalettes and Ship Ahoy are practical summer play suits, according to the Woman's Home Companion. Each suit is made in two pieces and the blouse is a pull-over to which the trousers are buttoned. The patch pocket of Pantalettes overflows with luscious embroidered strawberries and blossoms while Ship Ahoy wears on his a most-practical brigantine. Pantalettes also wears a cunning little shade hat made of her dress material. Long trousers invest chubby legs with quaint charm and also protect little knees from scratches and scrapes that often follow tumblers. Pantalettes would be picturesque in lemon-yellow cotton bound with white and embroidered in pink and green. Ship Ahoy might be blue denim with the simulated sailor collar in white stitching and the brigantine could be romantically colorful or white.

New Color Card Guide
Board, as Name Indicates
One of the cornerstones of fashions for next season has been laid. The standard color card is a guide board, as the name indicates. Hosiery will be dyed to match certain shades on that card; felt hats will be blended with the most popular color in favor for coats; small articles, such as thousands of bolts of wools, velvets, silks and cottons, will be dyed by this guide for fall colors. Shoes also will take their hues from that source. The card is assembled by the color card association.

"The card contains 192 colors, a most comprehensive collection of staple colors," said Mrs. Margaret Rorke, managing director of the association. "It represents the fruition of 13 years of wide experience and study of the color needs of America. The beauty and variety of the shades provides a lexicon of commercial colors which will be used in all branches of art, industry and trade. Every costume designer, every color specialist and every student of industrial art will consult it."

"Now that color is taking so important a place in our house decoration (table linen, towels, sheets, pillows, rugs, glassware and china, even ice boxes and pans are being produced in vivid colors); now that the color mode in gowns, slippers, hosiery, hats and various dainty accessories is occupying so prominent a place in fashion, a color chart such as that issued by our association is really of the greatest value to the consumer, the dealer and the manufacturer," Mrs. Rorke continued. "No housewife wants a riot of color—that is, if we are to have an abundance of colored objects, draperies and clothes we want the various tints to harmonize."

"The colors are grouped in distinct color families, all of which are arranged in harmonious relationship. Some of these families contain as many as eight tints and shades of one hue. Seventy-four colors from past season cards have been incorporated in the standard card because, by their popularity, they have now taken their place in the rank of staples."

Sleeves Go to Extremes to Prove They Are Smart
Sleeves sometimes go to extremes to prove their smartness. There are many interesting phases of new sleeves and diverse ways in which fullness is handled.

Coat sleeves, wide at the elbow, taper toward the wrist. This of beige kasha has bands of tucked self material. Jenny uses a full sleeve on a black satin afternoon coat that is very modern in feeling.

Fur-trimmed cuffs such as tiers of short-haired furs and the bracelet cuff of fluffy fur are very much in vogue.

Dress sleeves are not forgotten in the movement toward greater elaboration. On sheer chiffon and lace afternoon frocks, sleeves, tight fitted to just above the elbow, join a long full ruffle or flounce sometimes circular and often gathered. The flat puffed sleeve between elbow and wrist, left open with a tight cuff, is at its best on a street dress of heavy crepe.

"It represents the fruition of 13 years of wide experience and study of the color needs of America. The beauty and variety of the shades provides a lexicon of commercial colors which will be used in all branches of art, industry and trade. Every costume designer, every color specialist and every student of industrial art will consult it."

"Now that color is taking so important a place in our house decoration (table linen, towels, sheets, pillows, rugs, glassware and china, even ice boxes and pans are being produced in vivid colors); now that the color mode in gowns, slippers, hosiery, hats and various dainty accessories is occupying so prominent a place in fashion, a color chart such as that issued by our association is really of the greatest value to the consumer, the dealer and the manufacturer," Mrs. Rorke continued. "No housewife wants a riot of color—that is, if we are to have an abundance of colored objects, draperies and clothes we want the various tints to harmonize."

"The colors are grouped in distinct color families, all of which are arranged in harmonious relationship. Some of these families contain as many as eight tints and shades of one hue. Seventy-four colors from past season cards have been incorporated in the standard card because, by their popularity, they have now taken their place in the rank of staples."

Sleeves Go to Extremes to Prove They Are Smart

Sleeves sometimes go to extremes to prove their smartness. There are many interesting phases of new sleeves and diverse ways in which fullness is handled.

Coat sleeves, wide at the elbow, taper toward the wrist. This of beige kasha has bands of tucked self material. Jenny uses a full sleeve on a black satin afternoon coat that is very modern in feeling.

Fur-trimmed cuffs such as tiers of short-haired furs and the bracelet cuff of fluffy fur are very much in vogue.

Dress sleeves are not forgotten in the movement toward greater elaboration. On sheer chiffon and lace afternoon frocks, sleeves, tight fitted to just above the elbow, join a long full ruffle or flounce sometimes circular and often gathered. The flat puffed sleeve between elbow and wrist, left open with a tight cuff, is at its best on a street dress of heavy crepe.
